FLORIDA IS A CLOSED PRIMARY STATE

What does it mean?

In a closed primary election, voters are limited to choosing candidates of their own party.

If you are registered in the Republican Party, you are allowed to vote for Republican candidates, non-partisan contests and referendums.

If you are registered in the Democratic Party, you are allowed to votes for Democratic candidates, non-partisan contests and referendums.

If you are registered in a minor party or no party affiliation, you are allowed to vote in non-partisan contests and referendums in the Primary Election.

Note: A party change can be made on a voter registration application. A party change must be made prior to the end of the 29th day before an election.

Note: A new applicant who fails to designate a political party affiliation will be registered without a party affiliation.

Note: If all candidates for a race are affiliated with one party and the decision will be made in the Primary Election, everyone who is registered to vote for that election will be allowed to cast a ballot. A write-in candidate would close the primary to only party-affiliated voters.
